Life from Above is about observing and letting go of the vortex of our personal thunderstorms and very thought provoking. This exclusive exhibition will last until Tuesday 31st May at Media One Hotel. It consists of 15 pieces of original works that have not been released before.

Ali stated, "Sometimes we get so caught up in our own thunderstorm, a vortex, where with no way out in sight. When we reach this point the actual challenge is letting go and still have the courage to look back from afar. Once we can look back and we the true beauty that every heart-ship brings us closer to the person we are aiming to be. We have moved on. We find ourselves looking for the detail in the whole. But what if all we already have are details and the whole is missing?"

Mark Lee, General Manager stated, "Media One Hotel regularly opens its doors to renowned local artists in a bid to make art more accessible, allowing the public access to the artists' great works 24/7, so they have no need to feel shy about entering the world of art galleries. Ali's work first came to our attention from Amera Alawadhi who is organising the exhibition; but we were impressed by his signature style that complements modern living".

Media One's contemporary lobby proudly hosts The Life from Above Exhibition Ali Sultan's second solo exhibition from Wednesday 11th May until Tuesday 31st May and encourages everyone to explore this truly unique artwork.
