Layla Howes new Sales Manager at Media One Hotel

Media One Hotel has recently appointed Layla Howes as Sales Manager. Her variety of skills and experience will be an asset to her role, in securing business for the hotel.

Layla has had very varied career involved in people management. Her career started as a chef in the Royal Air Force in UK looking after VIPs, RAF staff and guests. In addition to this Layla has taken part in extensive training on basic military skills. She then continued to develop her career in both retail and the recruitment sectors in the UK.

In 2009 she came to UAE to work with Etihad Airways as Food and Beverage Manager responsible for overseeing the delivery of outstanding customer experience to the company's premium clients, ensuring excellent awareness of the brand and the products offered. Due to her exemplary skills in sales, Layla has also worked in other corporate companies in UAE including Office Inspirations as Sales Manager.

Layla selected Media One for her next move because she believes with her unique career, experiences and ambition she will be able to establish herself in Media One, using her skills and knowledge to benefit the company with her proactive attitude.

Ashmita Sequeira, Director of Sales at Media One, said "Layla was selected for her strong skills in operational management and her experience across numerous industries. We are very pleased to have her join the sales team at Media One Hotel!"
