Media One Hotel appoints Lynne McGarvey as Training Ambassador

Media One Hotel has appointed Lynne McGarvey as the new Training Ambassador for the hotel. Lynne has more than 10 years' experience in hospitality management; including HR and development. Lynne, will develop a new training strategy for Media One in line with brand guidelines, implement scheduled training courses and oversee training delivery in the individual department.

Lynne holds a CIPD Diploma in HR Practice from Bradfield Group, a BA Honors Degree in Hotel and Hospitality Management from Strathclyde University, Glasgow. Lynne has experienced both operational & training roles working as General Manager at Frankie & Benny's Italian restaurant in Glasgow area. She then moved to Dubai with Wafi Hospitality in 2010 as Bar & Restaurant Manager responsible for Carters, which included development of staff.

Lynne then moved to Sushi Art Restaurants for Dubai and Abu Dhabi as an Area Manager prior to joining Media One.

"Media One Hotel is a strong independent brand that is ideal for me to develop my experience in hospitality and with my passion and commitment I believe I will be able to provide individual training and guidance to build strong and effective relationships with enthusiasts and customers," said Lynne.

Commenting on Lynne's new role, Mark Lee, General Manager of Media One Hotel, said: "Lynne was selected for this position as she has always displayed a great enthusiasm for the industry. We are pleased she has joined Media One and we are looking forward to her ideas for planning, directing and delivering training and development programmes for all the team."

In her new role, Lynne will directly assist the HR Manager in overseeing training, ensuring smooth service and high levels of guest satisfaction.
