Media One Hotel are proud to launch the Al Haq Collection as their Ramadan Art Exhibition, featuring original works from Shazeea Ingar

From Sunday 14th June, Shazeea Ingar will be displaying the Al Haq Collection at Dubai's Media City's vibrant hotel, Media One, throughout the Holy Month of Ramadan; offering a unique experience for the community to appreciate the beauty of this expressive, contemporary style of art that complements modern living, especially in the Arab region.

This exclusive exhibition will last until July 24th at Media One Hotel. The 'Al- Haq' Collection is a series of paintings that explore the 'truth' of the Islamic culture as interpreted by Shazeea. The modern take on classical calligraphy and the complex meaning behind each will resonate with a wide audience.

Shazeea finds most of her inspiration for her letter forms from an impressive collection of ancient manuscripts of the Holy Quran that her and her husband have collected over the years. She transforms the classical styles to create new forms and compositions that create a visually stimulating and moving effect against a backdrop of colour where she explores human psychology in all its glory through the expression of abstract and contemporary fine art.

She first showed her work in the theatre Royal England, and since then has shown the 'Haalah Collection' in Dubai in 2011 the 'Harf Collection' in 2013 and participated in many art festivals in the UAE. Her work has been chosen for the Al-Qassimi foundation Fine Arts Festival Ras Al Khaimah in 2014 and most recently she decided to engage with audiences by live painting at the Street Nights Art Dubai event where she produced some of the work for the 'Al Haq' Collection

Shazeaa, stated, "I am pleased to be working on this collaboration with Media One Hotel during Ramadan, as I became enlightened with the beauty of Islamic calligraphy when I moved to Dubai and this gives me a further opportunity to pursue my artistic creativity.

An interpretation of contemporary calligraphy could be 'writing without rules' as demonstrated by the work on display, which captures the elegance of the Arabic written word and its use in traditional and contemporary artwork.

Mark Lee, General Manager stated, "Media One Hotel regularly opens its doors to renowned artists in a bid to make art more accessible, allowing the public access to the artists' great works 24/7, so they have no need to feel shy about entering the world of art galleries. This varied collection first came to our attention at Art Dubai and the sweeping calligraphic shapes complement the contemporary setting of our hotel. When visiting the exhibition guests will be able to identify how the works are characterised by contemporary Arabic influences and rich, layered colours".

Media One's lobby will proudly host this collection to encourage everyone to explore and understand more about this unique technique; the word calligraphy comes from the Greek – kallos, which means beauty; plus graphe, which means writing and all the pieces on display are visually beautiful.
